The Blue Book, China No. 5 (1901), which reached this Colony by Sunday's French mail, is entitled Further Correspondence concerning the Disturbances in China, and takes up the story from the point at which it stopped in China No. 1 (1901). It commences with a letter from Sir F. PLUNKETT to the Marquis of SALISBURY, dated Vienna, 27th September, 1900, and terminates with one from Lord LANSDOWNE to Sir E. SATOW on the 31st December. As is usually the case with Blue Books there is little contained in the correspondence that is new. Light is thrown on the rather tortuous negotiations among the Powers themselves and between them and China over the punishment of the officials guilty of complicity in the so-called "Boxer" rising and the violation of the sanctity of ambassadors. From the Blue Book the attitudes of the various Powers stand out more clearly than before, but otherwise the documents before serve mainly to confirm what we have learnt before from unofficial and semi-official sources.

One of the earliest documents of interest is a letter from Lord SALISBURY to Sir F. LASCELLES, dated the 2nd October, in which is the purport of a conversation with Count HATZFELD. To the German proposals on the question of punishment, Lord SALISBURY made two reservations. He would not agree to the participation of British troops in any expedition to the west of the Province of Chihli to ensure that certain offenders were at all costs to be arrested; and considered that, in the event of China refusing to deliver the offenders, Her Majesty's Government must retain liberty of action to enter into any agreements with the Chinese Government which it might be to the interests of Great Britain to make.

The actual starting point of negotiations was a memorandum communicated to Lord SALISBURY by M. CAMBON, French ambassador in London, on the 4th October, 1900, in which the following bases of negotiations were suggested by the French Government for consideration:—Punishment of the chief culprits; maintenance of the prohibition of the import of arms; equitable indemnities for States, societies, and individuals; establishment of a permanent Legation guard at Peking; dismantlement of the Taku Forts; military occupation of two or three points between Tientsin and Taku. The French Government thought it "impossible that such legitimate conditions, presented collectively by the representatives of the Powers, and supported by the presence of the international troops, should fail to be speedily accepted by the Chinese Government." With the discussion of these terms, their modification and the phrasing of the demand on the Chinese Government, the Blue Book is chiefly engaged. To the French proposals all the Governments adhered in principle, as Lord SALISBURY stated in a communication to Sir E. Monson on the 17th October. He himself, on behalf of the British Government, agreed to the basis, subject to each Power holding a fort of its own on the Tientsin-Taku road, instead of the forts being garrisoned internationally. The United States accepted the French basis under reserve, and wished the Powers to make a collective declaration of their determination to preserve the territorial integrity and the administrative entirety of China, with open and equal commercial intercourse between China and the world. On the 23rd November Sir E. SATOW telegraphed to Lord LANSDOWNE the news of the actual drafting of the Note and on the 24th that all the Ministers were agreed upon the text. However, the Government of the United States was not perfectly satisfied and urged that the negotiations might be shipwrecked by insisting upon conditions too difficult of performance for China, and from which it would be impossible for the Powers to draw back, and Mr. HARVEY objected more particularly to the use of the words "irrevocable conditions." On the 7th December Sir E. SATOW telegraphed that authority to sign the note had been received by the United States Minister and to retain the word "irrevocable." However, it was not until the 22nd December that Mr. CAMBON actually signed the Note, in which the word "irrevocable" was retained, but "absolutely" omitted. On the 24th of the same month the Note, duly signed, was presented to Prince CHING, and four days later the Imperial Decree was communicated by the Chinese plenipotentiaries in which the Emperor accepted the principles laid down in the twelve Articles presented in their entirety.

A snake measuring three-and-a-half feet was killed last night by an Indian watchman outside the offices of this paper. It was of a harmless species.

In General Gassler's report, extracts from which are published on our fifth page to-day, complimentary references to the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, Hongkong Regiment, and the local military authorities will be found.

Apart from plague last week, the only cases of infectious disease reported in the Colony were:—Diphtheria, 2 (at the Harbour (imported); puerperal fever, 1 (Chinese), resulting in death; small-pox, 4 (all Chinese, 3 in Victoria) with 3 deaths.

An Asahi telegram of the 5th inst. says:—A severe thunder and rain storm was experienced in Peking last night and three buildings in the Imperial palace were struck by lightning, and caught fire. The fire was put out this morning at 2 o'clock. One battalion of Japanese and 20 Americans rendered valuable service in putting out the fire. The troops of other powers were unable to obtain admission as the gates were closed.

According to telegrams from Sebastopol, Vice-Admiral Alexeeff called last month to the Minister of Marine asking that more vessels shall be sent out to reinforce the Russian fleet in Chinese waters. His demand is said to be based on a fear of future serious political troubles. The Ministry of Marine, it is said, has ordered the despatch to the Far East of the following additional ships:—

An auction of horses held by Messrs. Hughes and Hough yesterday afternoon proved a comparatively failure, purchasers being few. For Giraffe, only fifty dollars was offered, and no higher bid being made, the horse was knocked down at that. Favourite Bess started with a bid of $50 and rose to $110, at which amount it was knocked down. No 3, a bay hack, fetched only $25. An Arab pony went for $50, a China pony for $15, and a bay water for $20. Lots 7, 8, and 9 were withdrawn, nobody offering a bid. No 10, the well-known horse Fame, started with a hundred dollar bid and rose to $170, when it was withdrawn, no one offering more. No 11, an Arab stallion, was started at $25, and no bid being offered it was also withdrawn. For the last lot, a waler, $5 was the first bid, and on an offer of $12 the horse was knocked down to the bidder.

Max O'Rell (M. Paul Blouet) is said to be contemplating a lecturing tour in Japan.

According to a Seoul telegram a French syndicate has obtained a concession from the Korean Government to work a gold mine. The charter extends over 30 years.

There is a report that Kawakami and the other Japanese actors to London who delighted London last season will pay another visit to England during the current year.

The execution of murderers is still in full swing in the Philippines. On the 5th instant three natives were hung at Jaro, near Iloilo, Island of Panay, for the murder of a countryman of theirs.

A Chemulpo telegram of the 5th inst. reports that the British warships Iris and Australis (P. Astron) for Weihaiwei left the port that day, while the British torpedo-destroyer Other arrived from Weihaiwei.

Major-General Adas Chaffee, arrived at Manila from Taku on the morning of the 5th inst. on the U.S. transport Summer. General Chaffee is to relieve Major-General McArthur of the military government.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have awarded the conspicuous gallantry medal to the under-mentioned petty officers and men of the Royal Navy, in connection with the recent operations in China:—W. J. Christmas, petty officer, second class; H. Swannell, leading signalman; W. Parsonage, able seaman; P. Golden, able seaman; E. Whibley, ordinary seaman; T. Gardner, sick-birth steward.

According to El Comercio, the American government contemplates starting a special police force at Manila modelled on the famous "Carabineros" corps during the Spanish regime. The force is to be exclusive for service around the bay. The experiment is to be tried at first with 120 men, one officer and six sergeants, and to be increased according to requirement if the trial proves successful.

In writing about the reply of the Chinese Commissioners to the indemnity demands, Dr. Morrison notes that for the first time in the history of diplomatic relations with the Chinese, the despatch was accompanied by a French translation. The precedent, if followed, will greatly facilitate communication, though it would have to be understood which language was to rule in case of dispute.

In the House of Commons on the 16th ult. Sir Howard Vincent asked whether it is contemplated to confer any honours in respect of the services of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers and other land forces in China, bearing in mind that those earned by the Royal Navy have been already conferred. Lord Stanley said despatches had been received in regard to the question of conferring honours for services rendered by the Royal Welsh Fusiliers and other land forces.

Japanese papers point out that if the British proposal with regard to the indemnity be adopted, the Powers will receive the amounts of the demands in Chinese Bonds bearing 4 per cent. interest, which is a profitable rate in Europe, but disastrous for Japan. This rate of interest in Japan is too low, and the disposal of the bonds on the market will involve a heavy loss to the Government which will result in Japan receiving less than her right share. The Japanese authorities, whose claim represented actual expenditure and loss only, will try to devise means of avoiding this loss if the British proposal is adopted.

The search for the wreck of the Japanese training-ship Tankishima Maru, which was lost in November last while on a voyage from Hakodate to Shimidzu, has been given up. It was generally believed that the vessel went down somewhere in the Gulf of Siraga, and the authorities of the school have been prosecuting a search there ever since news of the disaster reached Tokyo. Now, however, the authorities have come to the conclusion that the wreck is not in the gulf and have therefore abandoned the search. The total amount expended in the search is 20,000 yen approximately.

With reference to the observance of the King's Birthday, the Press Association last month made the following explanation as to the misconception and consequent erroneous statement that the King has been pleased to direct that his birthday should be officially observed on 24th May. The facts are these:—The King, desiring to present colours to the recently formed 3rd Battalion of the Scots Guards, decided to make the presentation on 24th May, and it has been determined that the function shall be much on the lines of the trooping of the colour with which it was the custom to mark the anniversaries of the late Queen's birth. Again, it has been the custom to give the Government offices a holiday on 24th May, and the King has been approached as to whether the departments should be closed on any special day this year. The King's decision is that the holiday shall be given, and, as he considers 24th May a suitable day, that date has been fixed. The question of the manner in which his Majesty's birthday shall be officially commemorated has not yet been decided, but if it is ultimately determined to mark the occasion, as in the case of her late Majesty's birthday, by a trooping of the colour or some similar outdoor ceremony, it is officially recognized that such a celebration on the actual anniversary (9th November) would be impracticable. There is consequently every possibility of a summer observance. It may be decided, perhaps, to make coronation day the occasion of the celebration instead of the birthday, and as at present intended, that anniversary will fall in the summer.

Rear-Admiral Sir W. A. Dyke Acland has been selected to succeed Rear-Admiral A. B. Jenkins as second in command of the Channel Squadron.

The Sultan of Johore is now travelling through Europe incognito. After leaving France he was expected to visit England, Scotland, and Germany.

A Reuter telegram from New York last month reported the death of Count Mitkiewicz. He was formerly prominent through his efforts to procure banking concessions in China, but his schemes, which were conceived on large ideas, came to naught. They brought him a certain notoriety, but were not destined to be met with any success.

Judgment in the case instituted in the Kobe Chibo Saibansho against Mr. J. Carey Hall, British Consul, by Mr. Ito Shigematsu, in which the latter claimed payment of extra freight and damages alleged to have arisen out of a contract for the supply of carts for the British troops in North China, was given on the 5th inst. The claim of the plaintiff was dismissed with costs.

The following appointments were made last month at the Admiralty:—Commanders:—R. G. Gregory, to the Edipus; Midshipmen:—M. K. Hutton and M. C. Brotherton, to the Edipus, undated; R. Bacchus and J. L. C. Clark, to the Edipus, to date May 30; Paymaster G. L. Clarke, to the Edipus, to date May 30; Assistant Paymaster B. W. G. Cook, to the Edipus, to date May 30.

At the annual of the "American Transvaal League" at Grand Rapids, Mich., on the 24th ult., the treasurer's report showed that $279 had been disbursed by the National Society for the benefit of widows and orphans of Boer soldiers, and $304 sent direct to Kruger. In his address President Walker urged a continuation of the work for the success of the Boers and for the relief of the widows and orphans. The latter will not evidently be kept in luxury on the money found by the "American Transvaal League."

Among the "New Guinea Items" the Torres Straits Pilot of the 25th ult. says:—The Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Le Hunte, has little to add to the story of punishment inflicted on the natives already told. He says, however, that both the ill-fated missionaries, Chalmers and Tomkins, were killed together at the same time; and thus the agonising tale told previously of Mr. Tomkins being a witness of Tanaka's murder before he himself was killed is untrue. It is not likely that anything further will be done in the way of punishing the natives concerned in the massacres, at any rate, until the south-east season in the Gulf of Papua is over, or moderates, as it is almost impossible, to successfully navigate the Gulf with vessels suitable for its shallow waters during the season.

A London telegram of the 31st ult. says:—Lord George Hamilton has written to Sir Alfred Hickman, Member for Wolverhampton, replying to his recent criticisms in the House of Commons concerning the action of certain Indian Railways in obtaining material from America. Lord George Hamilton states that until the engineering strike such had never happened; but, since then, owing to British workshops being blocked, a few limited orders for locomotives had been placed in America, and those had proved satisfactory. The Burma Railway Board also found the work of the Gokteik viaduct sound and reliable. Lord George Hamilton dwells on the serious lessons to be learnt by British engineers from American progress, and concludes by undertaking always to give preference to British firms unless in difference in price, quality, and delivery is very substantial.

A correspondent writing to the Globe from Tientsin, speaking of the departure of General Wogack, records a point he says has not been hitherto made public. On 19th June, 1900, when the united attack of the Boxers and Imperial troops was being pushed home in Tientsin, we were for some hours in a very perilous state. "The defence of the railway station was in the hands of a body of 1,700 Russians, who by the merest chance had been unable to accompany Admiral Seymour's column; they had lost 50 men in killed and wounded during the morning, and were running short of ammunition, a council of war was held, and the Russian officer in command suggested and urged a retreat to Taku. It is awful to contemplate what would have happened had this taken place; a body of 2,200 men without artillery and with a very limited supply of rifle ammunition, escorting a civil population of 1,000 and an equal number of Chinese Christians and refugees through 30 miles of country swarming with well-armed enemies, with over 100 pieces of Krupp artillery. The wounded were already over 200 in number, and there was absolutely no transport whatever; the thermometer was, moreover, at 100 degrees in the shade. It would have been the greatest disaster of modern times, as it would most certainly have involved the destruction of the Legations and Peking community, who could not for one day have withstood the artillery and discipline of the 20,000 European-drilled troops, which would then have attacked them with all the prestige of victory. This unspeakable calamity was obviated by the steadfastness of Captain Edward Bailey, R.N., of H.M.S. Aurora, who blantly remonstrated that they could leave Tientsin if they liked, but he was going to remain; his superior officer, Admiral Seymour, had given him definite orders, and at all hazards he would obey them. This at once extinguished the proposal. Wogack, then a colonel only, supported the Englishman."

SUN YAT SEN RETURNING TO CHINA.

It is stated that his return is aimed at the overthrow of the Empress Dowager and Mandarins, and that he is backed by a strong force.

FURTHER RIOTING AT ST. PETERSBURG.

Serious labour riots have occurred at St. Petersburg, an armed force being necessary for their repression.

THE PLAGUE.

During the 48 hours ending at noon on Monday there were reported 59 fresh cases of plague (54 Chinese, 3 other Asiatics, and 2 Europeans) and 51 deaths (48 Chinese, 1 other Asiatic, and 2 Europeans). Last week's figures were—151 cases and 151 deaths, a slight decrease from the previous week's 161 cases and 155 deaths.

As we reported in our issue of yesterday, the death of another European from plague was removed in town on Sunday. The rumour now turns out to be fact, the victim being Mr. Ernest Karl Thoenert, manager of the China Export, Import, and Bank Company, 10, Des Voeux Road Central. The deceased resided on the premises of the company for two and a half years. He was sick for nine days with fever, and this ultimately developed into intestinal plague, to which he succumbed on Sunday afternoon. Typhoid fever was at first supposed to be the cause of death, but this was disproved by a post-mortem examination held at the public mortuary, whither the body was removed. The deceased, who was attended by two German doctors, was an athlete and a splendid oarsman, and had taken part in several international rowing contests here. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at Happy Valley, and was attended by many friends of the deceased.

The first case of a soldier being seized with the disease during the present epidemic was reported yesterday. The patient is a sapper in the Engineers, Lambert by name. He is 24 years of age, and was stationed at Wellington Barracks. Lambert, who has been removed to Kennedytown Plague Hospital, has only been a short time in the colony, having arrived a few weeks ago with a relief detachment of Engineers.

Miss Herbst, Mrs. Brownhill, and Mrs. Willoughby are making satisfactory progress. The other Europeans still continue to do well.

Victor Cruz, a Portuguese residing at 40, Bridges Street, and a Chilean from Wanchai named Mari (address unknown) were among the admissions to the hospital during the 24 hours ended at noon yesterday.

These returns also include an Indian watchman from the Taikoo Sugar Refinery and a Japanese from 70, Wellington Street.

An Indian woman from McGregor Street succumbed to plague yesterday morning.

Two Indian patients have been discharged from hospital cured. One is a watchman at Taikoo Sugar Refinery and the other a military dhoolie bearer from Kowloon.

A dead rat was found yesterday morning in a room on the basement floor at Government House. H. E. the Governor has requested the sanitary authorities to disinfect at once all the rooms in the basement.

At the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon Mr. Grist called the attention of his Honour A. G. Wise, Puisne Judge, to the condition of the court-room, and suggested that the carpets should be taken up, as they only served to harbour plague germs. His Honour jokingly remarked that it was unfair to expect too much, in view of what already had been done to the court-room. Only the other day, for the first time in its history, the court had been thoroughly swept and washed out. He would suggest, however, that the carpets be taken up.

COLLAPSE OF A HOUSE.

THREE MEN KILLED.

On Saturday afternoon, at about four o'clock, a collapse took place at a block of eight houses undergoing reconstruction in High Street, three men being killed and two injured—one, it is believed, seriously. The building is owned by Hop Yik, contractor, Wyndham Street, and was having an extra storey added. First accounts of the disaster are vague, but from what has been gathered it appears that the party-wall supporting Nos. 45 and 47 suddenly gave way and fell inwards down to the basement floor. Three carpenters and two masons who were employed on the reconstruction work were carried with the falling masonry and buried in the debris. The crash and the cries of the excited and alarmed people who witnessed the lamentable accident attracted the notice of several Europeans—among others Mr. A. Denison, architect, Mr. G. C. Madden, and Mr. A. Sheffield. Nothing definite was known as to how many men were underneath the ruins, but that there were several was felt to be almost certain, and means were at once taken to rescue them. In a short time the two stonemasons were rescued and sent off to Government Civil Hospital in ambulances. A number of police, under the charge of Inspector Baker and Sergeant At-Hury, had by this time arrived from No. 7 Police Station and assumed active control of the work of rescue. Their first act was to clear the street of the crowds who stood gazing at the ruined house, this step being rendered advisable by the frail appearance of the adjoining building, which looked as though the work of removing the debris would bring it with a rush to the ground. It was not until after midnight that the body of the first carpenter was recovered, and an hour afterwards the rescue party came upon that of the second. Both were taken to the mortuary. The third body was not unearthed until two o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Judging by the amount of material that covered them, the unfortunate men must have been killed instantaneously. As evidence of the remarkable antipathy felt by the Chinese to entering an hospital, it may be remarked that the two masons who were rescued in an injured condition refused to go into hospital, and were carried back to West Point Police Station. One of them has since complained of internal injuries, and has at his own request been admitted to the Government Civil Hospital. An enquiry into the circumstances attending the disaster will probably be held.

SUPREME COURT.

Monday, 17th June.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

BEFORE HIS HONOUR A. G. WISE (PUISNE JUDGE).

TROUBLE ABOUT A WATCH.

Lock Hing Nam sued J. Ullmann & Co., watchmakers and jewellers, 74, Queen's Road, for the return of $100 on the price of a watch sold to the plaintiff by the defendants.

Mr. J. S. Harston, solicitor, appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. E. J. Grist, a dilector, for the defendant.

Mr. Harston explained the facts of the case, which were as follows. On or about September, 1900, the plaintiff bought from the defendant a Chinese gold watch, and was so pleased with it that he determined to buy another from them. He ordered the second watch, and said he wanted it made with a repeater movement. On the 4th of May this year the plaintiff called at the defendant's shop, and saw the manager, who told him that the watch was in proper working order. The plaintiff asked:—"Does the case weigh three ounces in gold?" The defendant's manager replied:—"Yes, it does, and if it were possible I should weigh it; but the movement of the watch is so complicated that I would advise you not to have it weighed, as the movement might thereby be impaired." The plaintiff said:—"Well, I should like to have the case weighed," and the defendant's manager answered:—"If you have it weighed I won't have the watch warranted for three years" (referring presumably to the firm's custom of guaranteeing watches for three years). The manager added:—"If the watch-case does not weigh three ounces in gold, I will return $100 out of the sum of $300 you are going to pay for the watch." The plaintiff asked:—"Will you add that to your bill?" and the manager said:—"Yes," thereupon writing the agreement on the bill. This, Mr. Harston submitted, constituted an undertaking on the part of the defendant to refund the sum of $100 if the watch-case did not weigh three ounces. The plaintiff read the bill through, and found added certain figures in brackets:—"89.45, grs." He asked for an explanation of these figures, and the manager replied:—"It's all right. If you read you will see that I undertake to return $100 if the watch-case does not weigh three ounces in gold." The plaintiff found this to be so, and paid the money—$300—for the watch, which he took away with him. A day or two later he had the watch-case weighed at Messrs. C. J. Ganp and Co.'s, and discovered that it did not weigh three ounces—further, that it was not even the weight of 89.45 grammes. He consulted Mr. E. Wines, solicitor, certain correspondence between the parties ensued, and the case was finally taken into Court.

The plaintiff, Lock Hing Nam, was called and gave evidence. Mr. Grist afterwards cross-examined.

The watch was taken to pieces in Court by one of the defendant firm's Chinese workmen and the case weighed by a European from Messrs. Ganp.

Weighed with steel which weighed 90.4 grammes. Without the steel, which Mr. Harston contended was not part of the case, it weighed 88.1/10 grammes.

His Lordship, after hearing arguments, entered judgment for the plaintiff, with costs.

Journalism in Greenland is represented by a single newspaper, founded and conducted by Mr. Goeller, who is editor, printer, publisher, and newsagent all in one. The offices of the paper, which is a bi-monthly, are at Godthaab, and once a fortnight Mr. Goeller performs a long journey on skates to dispose of his journal. Originally nothing more than a collection of crude illustrations, Mr. Goeller gradually introduced into his paper first words and then sentences, and finally articles on the affairs of the day. In fact, he may be said to have actually taught many of his subscribers to read.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents.]

MUNICIPAL FREEDOM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS."

17th June.
SIR,—In continuation of my letter signed "T," published in your issue of the 24th May last, I beg to recommend the early adoption of high iron ventilating pipes for the better ventilation of all existing Chinese tenement houses, or rather human rookeries. These pipes are provided with revolving rain-proof caps with connecting appliances for the interiors of ground and upper flats of each house. They enable the wind to draw out the foul air from the dark and fetid interiors of the various flats and yards. The suction is continuous and goes on day and night, the void being filled with fresh air which rushes in from the outside. The revolving cap is so constructed that the mouth always faces in the direction the wind is blowing, so that there is no possible chance of the foul air being blown back down the pipe. These ventilating pipes are simple in construction and easy to put up. They must project beyond the roof, high enough to catch the wind, and should be fixed outside the houses, the openings connecting the interior of each flat being protected with iron gratings.

I strongly recommend these pipes for the ventilation of the main sewers of the city. I shall be glad to furnish particulars of my design to anybody who may care to apply for them.

In the meantime, all the traps and gullies of the city should be daily flushed and cleaned. But as the tenants cannot be expected or depended upon to do this regularly, it would be better for the Government to take the drainage question in hand without further delay.

If a system has been proved to be a failure, is it reasonable to expect it to turn out a success? To expect good from the present state of sanitation in this Colony, one might as well expect the moon to turn into a green cheese.

We must protect the trade and commercial reputation of our port at all costs, no matter if we have to sacrifice lakhs of dollars.

Why should the Government hesitate, when trade and shipping, the life blood of the Colony, is being paralysed from year to year.

With our hobby of human rookeries and foul drains, how can we blame the plague germs for having such an affectionate attachment for this Island of Fragrant Streams?

Not until these rookeries are resumed and demolished by the Government and the existing system of drainage improved or remodelled, can the Colony ever expect to be free from plague, typhoid, malaria, &c., and the sooner this is recognised the better it will be for the trade and prosperity of the port.

In all resumed areas the Government should introduce the system of "twin" or semi-detached houses, as suggested in my letter of the 22nd ultimo.

The Government cannot help sacrificing its revenue, as good things cannot be had cheap.

Regarding the proposed experiment of fumigating the houses in the district bounded by Graham Street, Wellington Street, Shing Mong Street and Cause Road, may I ask whether the results would be so beneficial as anticipated?

If the traps, gullies and drains in this district are allowed to remain in their present foul and poisonous condition, I do not see what benefits will be derived by fumigating these houses.

The poisonous germs may be destroyed by the process of fumigation, but will not these very houses get recharged with the same poisonous gases after they have been released? I therefore ask, will the good effects be permanent, and will they counterbalance the annoyance and inconvenience occasioned?

Again, what about the rats? Of course these found dead in the houses will be picked up and destroyed, but what about those in the holes and other hidden places? These will be left to rot, I suppose, and remain undiscovered until the stench is unbearable and the air inside the houses is poisoned and full of germs, perhaps of plague.

In my opinion it would be dangerous to kill rats by fumigation unless there is a certainty of collecting the whole lot of them. It is far different with the holds of ships, where there is every possibility of the whole colony of rats being killed and collected.

People are so scared of plague now that a dead rat, let alone a rotting one, is sufficient to unbalance their minds.

Fumigation is beneficial, but only when carried out judiciously under favourable circumstances. Instead of favouring the houses fumigated why not have them thoroughly washed out by a liberal use of fresh water and disinfectants? The tenants could do this themselves under the supervision of the officers of the Sanitary Board. This would result in some practical good being done. Water would clear the houses of their filth and help to flush the drains, and disinfectants would purify the air.

This would not necessitate the wholesale vacation of houses by their inmates as in the case of compulsory fumigation; and it will not be necessary for whole families of respectable Chinese women and children to stand or sit in the streets for hours in the broiling summer sun, and during all this time, open to the vulgar gaze of crowds of ignorant coolies and loafers. Is this going to be one of the beneficial results of fumigation?

By decrying the proposed experiment of fumigating this district it must not be taken, for one moment, to mean that I am in any way a prejudiced obstructionist.

I merely compare the two experiments, pointing out their advantages and disadvantages in the sole hope that the best scheme will be adopted for the benefit of the people and the Colony.

Under existing circumstances, I am of opinion that a thorough cleansing of the houses by a liberal use of fresh water and free disinfectants will give far better results than four hours of fumigation. Sunlight, fresh air and water are Nature's cures and therefore the most reliable.

I am sure the Chinese would be only too glad to wash and clean their houses, and in case a house was found to be imperfectly washed the superintending officer could order the operation to be repeated to his satisfaction.

Co-operation of this nature would prevent irritation, and give satisfaction to all concerned.

Thanking you for trespassing upon so much of your valuable space.—I am, yours, etc.,

TSE TSAN TAI.

MANILA.

[FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.]

Manila, 9th June.

THE DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT.

The cabled information concerning the decision of the Supreme Court in the much agitated question of the constitution following the flag, came like thunder out of a clear sky. The first intimation was received last Thursday, and was addressed to the Civil Commission. As it happened the Commission was spending the day in the town of Paoig, discussing provincial government with the delegates from Manila and Morong provinces, but a special launch was sent up the river to deliver the communication without delay. This cable was from the War Department at Washington, but it was so indefinite that it only served as an intimation of the actual facts and opened wide the field of speculation. The next day some of the business houses heard from their American agents, and the impression rapidly gained ground that under the decision of the court they would soon have all their customs duties returned to them. Many of the firms have been paying duties under protest, anticipating a favourable ruling of the Supreme Court in the Porto Rico case and expecting that the same ruling would extend to the Philippines. If this should come to pass many of the Manila houses would be made very wealthy. The liquor and provision men would especially be benefited, as such firms as the American Commercial Company and the Pacific Oriental Trading Company have paid out thousands upon thousands of dollars, which of course they have not lost, as they, like all other business men, have made the public pay the duty in the long run. To refund the duties would be to make a simple clear gift to them.

The city was full of these legitimate speculations and numerous others, including the possibility of tripartite jury, universal suffrage, territorial government, booms in hemp, tobacco, and sugar, under free trade with the United States, and so on to infinity. It was not until Sunday afternoon that definite and final word was received describing the action of the Supreme Court. This came in the shape of a carefully considered and clearly worded cablegram from the Secretary of War to President Taft. It is self-explanatory, and the following is the text:—"Supreme Court holds that uniformity of duties clause of the Constitution does not apply to the Government of the Islands ceded by Spain; that Congress has power to impose Customs duties on imports from Porto Rico and that such duties levied under the Foraker Act are lawful. The Court also holds that imposition of duties on merchandise imported from the United States into Porto Rico before the session was a valid exercise of the President's power as Military Commander, and that the same duties imposed after the session and before the passage of the Foraker Act were invalid, because the United States having both title by cession and peaceable possession, Porto Rico ceased to be a foreign country within the terms of the Dingley Tariff. The Court did not decide the case raising the question of the power of Congress to impose duties in Porto Rico on imports from the United States, which is objected to as constituting an export tax in violation of the Constitution Article I, section 8. The Court did not decide the case which raised the question of the right of the President to impose duties in the United States under the Dingley Act upon merchandise imported from the Philippine Islands after the ratification of the Treaty of Paris. The most obvious distinction between the status of Porto Rico and the Philippines after the session, indicated in the opinions of the court, is in the fact that Porto Rico was at the time of cession in full peaceable possession while a state of war has continued in the Philippines. As the question of the President's power to impose duties in the Philippine Islands under the existing conditions of military occupation has not been decided by the court, the President has determined to continue to impose duties as heretofore. We hope for further decisions by the Supreme Court shortly after it meets in October and before the meeting of Congress. The revision of the Philippine Tariff proposed by you (Taft) will be considered in a few days. [Signed]—Root, Secretary War."

In view of this condition of affairs it may be possible that Washington will see fit to continue the military government of the Philippines indefinitely, or at least until Congress meets at the end of the present year.

In the meantime the Civil Commission is carrying on its work without interruption, though this latest change in the political situation has considerably embarrassed its legislation. It is quite possible that the complete change which it was believed would occur on 1st July, when the Civil Authorities were to succeed the military, may be considerably delayed.

HONGKONG GENERAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

At the Monthly Meeting of the General Committee of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce, held at 4 p.m. on Tuesday, the 11th June, 1901.—Present: Sir Thomas Jackson (Chairman), Mr. C. S. Sharp (Vice-Chairman), Messrs. A. Haupt, W. Poate, B. L. Richardson, H. A. Ritchie, N. A. Sieha, H. E. Tomkins, Hon. J. Thurston (ex officio), and E. C. Wilcox (Secretary).

MINUTES.—The minutes of the previous Monthly Meeting (held 15th May) were read and confirmed.

THE GENERAL COMMITTEE.—Read letter from Hon. J. J. Keewick addressed to the Secretary tendering his resignation as a member of the Committee, as he was leaving the Colony, and expressing his good wishes for the continued usefulness of the Chamber.

THE CHAIRMAN proposed that Mr. J. J. Bell Irving be invited to accept the vacant seat. The Vice-Chairman seconded.

Carried unanimously.

NEW MEMBER OF THE CHAMBER.—The SECRETARY reported that Messrs. E. P. Parnay & Co. had been elected to membership of the Chamber since the last monthly meeting.

MEDICAL INSPECTION OF PASS-POSSERS.—A letter having been received on the 18th May, from the Superintendent of the P. & O. S. N. Co., calling attention to the pressing need for improvement in the manner in which the medical inspection of shipping visiting this harbour was carried out, making suggestions for its improvement, and asking the Chamber to make representations on the subject to H.E. the Governor.

This letter was submitted to all the shipping firms and agencies, and their unanimous endorsement and approval having been obtained. A letter was drafted, and on the 1st June, was forwarded to the Government, together with copy of Mr. Ritchie's communication.

Read letter from the Government in reply to above dated 7th June, stating that H. E. the Governor fully realises the importance of the subject and proposes to amend the quarantine regulations as suggested.

The CHAIRMAN said he thought that was very satisfactory so far.

PROHIBITION OF CHINESE IMMIGRATION FROM HONGKONG INTO STRAITS SETTLEMENTS.—The SECRETARY reported receipt of letter from Government, dated 28th May, enclosing copy of telegram from Colonial Secretary, Singapore, of same date, as follows:—"Chinese coolie immigration prohibited by vessels sailing from Hongkong after 25th May." Copies of same were supplied to the local Press.

On the 3rd June a letter was received, signed by the Shipping Firms and Agencies affected thereby, requesting the Chamber to represent to the Government the hardship entailed upon them by this prohibition, which was opposed to the Venice Convention, and begging that the matter be referred to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, with a view to obtain the speedy cancellation of the prohibition on immigration.

A letter was accordingly, on the 6th June, addressed to the local Government to that effect, and a copy of the letter from the Shipping Firms was enclosed therein.

THE ACTION OF THE COLONY.—Consequent upon a suggestion made by Mr. W. Poate, on the 31st May, after consideration, the Committee decided to make a representation to the Government calling attention to the serious damage being done to the trade of the Colony by the present serious epidemic of plague and the necessity for taking every available means to restrict the ravages of the disease and to improve the sanitation of the port, and

A letter was accordingly, on the 7th June, addressed to the Acting Colonial Secretary on the subject.

The CHAIRMAN said no reply had, as yet, been received to their letter. As they were aware, he himself had not been in favour of the Chamber taking up this question, as he had a holy horror of its interfering in any way in local politics. However, he was alone in this opinion: the rest of the Committee were unanimous on the point (the Hon. Mr. Thurston, being only an ex officio member, abstained from giving an opinion); and he could only say that the letter had been most carefully drafted, and was most moderately expressed. He quite agreed with its terms; the only point of difference between himself and the Committee being that he thought the representation would have come better from the ratepayers.

Mr. RITCHIE said he thought the matter was decidedly one for the Chamber to take up, as the sanitation of the port greatly affected the shipping. Other members coincided with Mr. Ritchie's opinion.

In response to the CHAIRMAN.—Hon. J. THURSTON expressed the opinion that the Chamber was going out of its province to interfere in municipal matters, but the letter had gone in, and it was no use now to express his view.

The CHAIRMAN—Yes, it has gone in, and it cannot do any harm, and we hope it will be productive of much good.

THE CHINESE TARIFF QUESTION.—Read letter received, on 5th June, from the London Chamber of Commerce, dated 3rd May, acknowledging receipt of the Chamber's telegram of that date, on the proposal to double the Chinese Tariff without provision being made for the redress of taxation and other mercantile grievances, and forwarding copy of covering letter to the Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to whom it was promptly transmitted.

Much satisfaction was felt at the promptitude shown by the Secretary of the London Chamber in the matter.

The CHAIRMAN said there was nothing further to say on the question just now. The Foreign Ministers had, he heard, decided to make the 5 per cent. tariff effective, and the Chinese Government had undertaken to pay an indemnity of Ls. 450,000,000. The details of the security were now being discussed.

With regard to this subject, the SECRETARY stated that letters were received from the Government, on the 25th May, transmitting copy of telegram from H.B.M.'s Consul-General, Bangkok, announcing that vessels from Hongkong should call at Koh Phai for quarantine; and, on the 31st idem, enclosing copy of despatch from H.B.M.'s Consul at Swatow, intimating that that port had been declared by the Shanghai Authorities to be infected with plague. Receipt of both letters had been duly acknowledged, and the local Press notified of the facts.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION WITH YAN KAI.—The CHAIRMAN said it had come to his knowledge that the Government of the United States intended laying a cable line from America to the Philippine Islands, which no doubt would be extended to Hongkong. The effect of this would be to lower the present excessive telegraphic rates.

The members of the Committee hailed with satisfaction the prospect of having in the near future reasonable telegraphic rates.

This was all the business of public interest before the meeting.

The following is the reply of the Government on the subject of the sanitation of the Colony, the rest of the correspondence above referred to being held over until to-morrow's issue:—Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong, 15th June, 1901.

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th instant, and to inform you that His Excellency the Governor joins with the Chamber of Commerce in the regret that here, as in India, the anxious efforts of the Government have failed to control Bubonic Plague, or to materially check its ravages.

As to the various matters on which the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce have been good enough to give their views, they have long been subjects of most anxious consideration by those whose professional knowledge and experience best fitted them to advise upon them, and some have been dealt with by the Legislative Council. His Excellency would suggest that as the Chamber of Commerce is directly represented in the Council, it should request its representative to bring its views before that body, where the grounds for assumptions which appear to have been somewhat hastily adopted may be clearly stated and fully answered. His Excellency instructs me to add that nothing could more contribute to the commercial losses pointed out in the fourth paragraph of the letter than reckless statements, some untrue, and others greatly exaggerated, that have appeared from time to time in the public Press; and the apparent acceptance of these statements by the members of the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, without investigation or adequate knowledge, is not calculated to allay fears that, if continued, may permanently affect the prosperity of this Colony, dependent as it is upon the business incidental to a great shipping port of call. The Governor observes with satisfaction that the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce are prepared to accept cheerfully the increased taxation that will probably be necessary to meet the heavy expenses of contemplated measures for the general improvement of sanitation.

I have the honour to be, Sir, Your most obedient servant.

T. SHERWOOD SMITH, Agent, Colonial Secretary.

The Secretary, Chamber of Commerce.

POLICE COURT.

Monday, 17th June.

BEFORE MR. HAZLELAND.

ILLICIT POSSESSION OF OPIUM.

The complainor of the s.s. Charterhouse had twenty tins of prepared and twenty-five tins of dress opium in his cabin, but no certificate to show that he had a right to be in possession of such a large quantity; hence the charge.

Excise Officer Spooner told his Worship, in answer to a query, that he had no desire to press the charge seriously or to ask for the full penalty.

The complainor claimed he kept the opium for the ship's coolies.

A fine of $150 was imposed, with the option of six weeks' hard labour.

There were nine more cases of the same nature, the quantities of opium found varying from one to eight mace, and the fines ranging from $2 or eight days to $25 or three weeks' hard labour.

BEWILK AND DISORDERLY.

John Croft, an English seaman, charged with being drunk and disorderly on Praya East yesterday morning, got $5 or eight days' hard labour.

Robert Arnold, a Canadian watchman at H.M. Naval Yard, and Joseph Thomas, an American teamster, were both charged with assaulting the Indian watchman of the Hongkong Hotel on the 15th inst.

Croft said he could not remember having struck the watchman. His admission of having had a few drinks, however, explained this lapse of memory.

They were each given $5 or fourteen days.

CUTTING AND WOUNDING.

A Chinese during a quarrel with a countryman at the market picked up a meat chopper and attempted to slice his adversary's head, but only succeeded in inflicting a deep gash.

Sergeant McElwaine prosecuted. Several witnesses were called, but all denied having seen the accused use a knife, though admitting to having seen a struggle. However, his Worship thought the complainant's cut head sufficient evidence, and told accused he would have to find him guilty of assault and sentence him to a fine of $15 or one month's hard labour.

DUMPING A DEAD BODY ON THE HILLSIDE.

Inspector Collett, in order to get on the track of Chinese who have a habit of simply dumping the body of the plague stricken out on the street or the hillside, had several special constables stationed behind bushes on the hillside at Wingfoong Street lately.

Between four and five o'clock the other morning one of these special guards saw a Chinese approach with a dead countryman hanging over his shoulder, whom he suddenly dumped in the road.

The constable laid hold of him. A struggle ensued, and the Chinese got away, not, however, without leaving his jacket and hat as a pledge.

The hat appeared to belong to a riskahs coolie, and with this clue Inspector Collett set to work, and soon had the owner traced. It turned out that the hat had once belonged to this man, but that he had given it away to another coolie. At last the new owner of it was found, and the charge brought home. Another coolie who had acted as watchman for the accused while the latter attempted to dispose of the corpse gave evidence against him.

Accused was given the option of paying a fine of $25 or going to prison and doing hard labour for six weeks.

BEFORE MR. KEMP.

NEGLECTING TO REPORT PLAGUE CASES.

Mrs. Maria Raymond, widow, of No. 116, Hollywood Road, was charged with neglecting to report a case of plague which occurred in her house.

Defendant—I did not know that I must report sickness. Woman died, I call policeman. I know nothing what sick woman was.

His Worship—Either you must prove it was no plague case or that you did not know it was.

Dr. Bell testified to having examined the body of a Chinese female said to have died at No. 116, Hollywood Road, and found the had died of plague. The babe was quite visible.

His Worship discharged defendant.

Another case was that of a Chinese woman living at 41, Wellington Street, who was charged with concealing the fact that she had a plague case in the house. Accused pleaded ignorance of the nature of the disease and was discharged.

NORTHERN NOTES.

The following items are from the P. & T. Times of the 8th inst. It would appear that the Provisional Government exercises a Press censorship, for there are practically no details about the Taku Road affray on the 2nd inst., beyond the mention of the fact that the inciting cause was the closing of one of the low houses in the neighbourhood.

Li Hung-chang is enrolling additional police to preserve peace now that the foreign troops are withdrawing.

The Wu Yin-tien Hall of the Imperial Palace where old official records were kept, was burnt to the ground on Tuesday night.

It is reported that the Chinese have asked the Japanese to organise a police force 2,000 strong for the preservation of order in Peking.

The Je Se states that they hear from Peking that the railway will shortly be handed back to the Chinese, a foreign guard being posted at each station.

The Chinese are sending troops to guard the Grand Canal, East River and North districts against brigands, these being outside the P. G. jurisdiction.

Wu Ting-fang has telegraphed to Li Hung-chang from Washington urging him to strongly oppose the opening of China, and the development of mines by foreigners.

General Vozon has for the better preservation of the general peace, prohibited his men from entering the British Settlement, wisely considering it best to consider this Settlement out of bounds, in the same way as we have always regarded the French Settlement. We trust the arrangement will work well.

Count von Waldersee left here on Tuesday even more quietly than he came; detachments from all the troops here forming guards of honour at the Station. His task has been an ungracious one throughout and all things considered the old and distinguished soldier is to be congratulated on the admirable task he has discharged throughout, and the amicable relations he has been able to maintain with the various commanders more or less under his direction.

That this good understanding was none the less due to the sensible appreciation of the difficulties of the situation which military commanders of all nationalities displayed, goes without saying, and must have contributed greatly to reduce the complications of responsibilities which H. E. is, we believe, very glad to relinquish in returning home.

In handing over the supreme command of the Allied Forces, Count von Waldersee extended his hearty thanks to Lieut.-General Gaselee and the officers under him for their co-operation with him in service.

GENERAL GASELEE'S REPORT.

"The London Gazette" of the 14th ult. contained a despatch, dated Peking, 17th January, from Lieut.-General Gaselee, commanding the British contingent of the China Expeditionary Force, giving his report to the end of the year. In his previous despatch, dated 19th August, he made no reference to the part played in the attack on Peking by those portions of the British forces, which were not with him at the moment of the relief of the Legations, as he had not then received any reports on their operations. With these operations General Gaselee now deals in detail, and describes the forcing of the Chien-min by Sir Norman Stewart. General Gaselee then notes the most important engagements that have occurred since the occupation of Peking.

"On 17th August I sent a detachment to occupy the ruins of the railway terminus at Machup, with a view to securing our interest in the railway to Tientsin. Owing, however, to a Russian report that the enemy were advancing in force from the Hunting Park this detachment was withdrawn on 18th August, and a day or two afterwards the post was occupied by the Russians without reference to us. In consequence of this action, at the request of the British Minister, I sent detachment to occupy the railway junction at Fengtai and the walled town of Liukachow commanding
the road and railway bridges across the Hunhe.
These posts have been maintained ever since and have proved of the utmost value in facilitating the collection of supplies and of railway material, as well as in restoring confidence.
On the withdrawal of the Russians in October from Machup, that post was handed over to the Germans, and, subsequently, by Field-Marshal Count von Waldersee's orders, transferred to the British, to whom the construction of the railway line from Peking to Huang Hen was entrusted.

"The most considerable of the subsequent operations was the punitive expedition to Pao-ting-fu last October by two columns converging from Peking and Tientsin respectively. General Gaselee, who commanded the whole international force employed, says that this expedition, although practically bloodless, had, he believes, a salutary effect in convincing the Chinese of the power of the Allies and of the uselessness of armed resistance."

Some observations follow on the services of the Medical and Commissariat Departments during the campaign. The Medical Department was not severely tested, the number of casualties on the march to Peking being comparatively small, and the river affording an easy means of transferring the sick from the front to the base. As regards the Commissariat and Transport Department, General Gaselee says that, considering the difficulties of the first advance, the results were eminently satisfactory.
He adds:—

"The only hind transport at first available was that afforded by the obligatory mules of regiments, but the foresight and energy of Gen. Dorward and the naval authorities secured for the force a sufficient supply of boats to supplement the transport while, thanks largely to the exertions of Com. G.
H. Dorsett, Royal Navy, Capt. R. P. Lee, R.E., and Capt. H. O. Farr, 7th Rajputs, to whom the organisation of the river transport was first entrusted, and thanks also to the energy of Capt. D. R. Ayle, who commanded the land transport, the British contingent was from first to last well supplied with food and necessities. We have now a well-organised cart-train, formed chiefly from captured mules and ponies, and our stocks of food and clothing are ample and good."

General Gaselee then states that in an oversea expedition like this much of the success of the operations must always be due to the exertions of the Royal Navy and the Royal Indian Marine, and he places on record the great assistance he received from Capt. P. F. Tiltard, Comdr. J. B. Bustace and E. F. A. Gaunt, Lieut. A. G. Alston, Paymaster E. F. Murray, and Gunner A. B. R. Brook, of the Royal Navy, also Comdr. F. H. Elderton and Lieut.
S. D. Vale, A. Rowland, A. E. Harold, and E. J. Headland, of the Indian Marine.

"In this connection I would also wish to notice Mr. Tamplin, Master of the steamship "El Dorado," who was largely responsible for unloading transports at Taku."

General Gaselee then calls attention to a number of officers for their services, amongst them being:—

"Major-General E. G. Barrow, C.B., as Chief of the Staff, has throughout given me most valuable support and assistance. His high reputation as a Staff Officer is already well established, but I venture to bring his services most particularly to your lordship's notice."
"Major-General L. R. D. H. Campbell has carried out the important duties of General, Lines of Communication, thoroughly and satisfactorily."

"Major-General A. R. F. Dorward, C.B., D.S.O., was for some time in command at Tientsin, where he displayed much tact and judgment in dealing with difficult situations, and gave me invaluable help in pushing on supplies, while at the same time clearing the country of gatherings of the enemy who were then threatening to interrupt our communications. His services throughout have been of a high order."

"Major-General O'Moore Craig, V.C., commanding 2nd Brigade at Shanghai, although not actively employed in the field, has fully maintained his reputation as a thoroughly good officer, while the fact of his presence at Shanghai, in a necessarily detached command, has been a great relief to me."

"Sir W. Hillier, K.C.M.G., who was attached to my Staff as Political Adviser, has rendered invaluable services to this force. It is chiefly owing to his tact and great knowledge and experience of the country that our relations with the Chinese round Shanhaikwan have been so satisfactory."

"The Royal Welsh Fusiliers.—As the only British Infantry Corps with the force this regiment was invaluable to me. I understand they did good service at Tientsin before my arrival, and I am certainly much indebted to them for their services on the march to Peking.
I trust Lieutenant-Colonel the Honourable R.
H. Bertie's services will be recognised."

"Hongkong Regiment.—Major (local Lim-Colonel) J. M. A. Retallick, Indian Staff
Corps, did useful work on the Paoing-fu Expedition, and Captain E. C. Rowcroft, Indian Staff Corps, was in command of a detachment of the regiment on the march to Peking, when the detachment did well. Sabadar Major Sardar Khan also deserves recognition."

"1st Chinese Regiment.—A detachment of the regiment was present on the march to Peking, and afterwards did well on the Lines of Communication. The services of Captain A. A. S.
Barrow call for recognition."

"Captain Ross (Shanghai Volunteers), who did good service as Staff Officer to General Dorward during the Tientsin operations."

"I trust it will not be deemed out of place in this despatch if I venture to draw attention to the invaluable services rendered to this force by the loyal and zealous co-operation of the Military authorities at Hongkong. I trust the services of Major-General Gaselee, C.M.G., will meet with their due recognition. I would also call attention to those of Colonel N. P.
O'Gorman, Lieut.-Colonel J. L. A. Wheeler,
Chief Ordnance Officer, and Major M. M.
Morris, Royal Garrison Artillery."

"I wish to take this opportunity of paying a tribute to some of the foreign officers with whom British troops have been associated. By the force of circumstances this contingent has been more in touch with the American and Japanese Forces than with those of the other Powers, and in consequence of their close co-operation with us on their march to Peking, I have good reason for particularising these forces among our Allies. General Chaffee and General Baron Yamaguchi, who respectively commanded the United States Forces and Imperial Japanese Contingent, have been most loyal in all their relations with me, and I may say the same of General Wilson, United States Forces, and General Fukushima, Chief of the Staff of the Japanese Contingent, while among the many officers with whom we have been closely associated I desire to mention the following:—Colonel Dickman, Major Mills, Captain Grote Hutchison, Major Waller,
U.S. Marine, on the Staff of the United States
Contingent; Colonel Negata, Colonel Shiba, Lieut.-Colonel Harada, Major Yui, on the Staff of the Japanese Contingent; while Colonel Aoki has done good work in the Allied cause as the Japanese Member of their Tientsin Government. I must also express my thanks to another of the members, Colonel De Wogack, of the Russian Service."

Mention is also made of other officers of the International force in a supplementary despatch.
